ORDER

On December 10, 2015, the court held the pretrial conference. The court APPROVES the attached pretrial order that the parties submitted. In addition, as discussed in open court, in light of the agreement that the plaintiffs and legislative movants reached concerning the production of documents and this court's order of December 3, 2015 [D.E. 63], the legislative movants need not file the privilege log referenced in that order.

SO ORDERED. This 10 day of December 2015.

21. Defendant Wake County Board of Elections is a distinct legal entity, with an office in Wake County, NC, created by state statute and empowered by state law with the responsibility of administering elections for the Wake County Board of County Commissioners and Wake County Board of Education.

The parties intend to file a stipulation, as soon as possible, establishing even more undisputed facts, particularly as they relate to legislative history, election results, voter statistics, among others, which will simplify the presentation of evidence. The parties will attempt to have that stipulation filed prior to the pre-trial conference.

F. Legal Issues

1. Whether the electoral districts established by Session Law 2013-110, for the election of the Wake County Board of Education and S.L. 2015-4 for the election of the Wake County Board of Education violates the one-person, one-vote requirement established by the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.
2. Whether the electoral districts established by Session Law 2013-110, for the election of the Wake County Board of County Commissioners and S.L. 2015-4 for the election of the Wake County Board of Education violates the one-person, one-vote requirement established by Article I, Section 19, of the North Carolina Constitution.
3. Whether District 4, as established by Session Law 2015-4, to be used as an election district for the Wake County Board of County Commissioners violates the rights of Plaintiffs to be free from racial classifications, in violation of the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

G. Factual Issues

1. Whether race predominated in the drawing of District 4, as adopted in S.L. 2015-4.
2. If race did predominate in the drawing of District 4, as adopted in 2015, whether the history of electoral success of candidates of choice of black voters in elections for the Wake County Commission and other offices demonstrates that the use of race was not necessary to comply with the Voting Rights Act.

II. CONTENTIONS

A. Plaintiffs' Contentions

1. Facts

- a. In 2011, as mandated by law, the Board of Education engaged in a post-decennial census redistricting, and enacted a new 9 single-member district plan with an overall deviation of 1.66%.
- b. Although not required by law, in June of 2011 the Board of County Commissioners adopted by resolution a new set of residence districts, each comprised of only whole precincts, to take account of population shifts within the county.
- c. The overall deviation in the 7-single member districts in the challenged plans is 7.11%.
- d. The overall deviation in the 2 super districts in the challenged plans is 9.8%.
- e. District 4 in S.L. 2015-4 is drawn to be 54.3% black voting age population.
- f. Black voters in Wake County have enjoyed significant success in electing candidates of their choice in county-wide elections and in non-majority black districts.

2. Factual Issues

- a. In 2013, following the failure of conservatives to regain control of the Wake County school board after the 2011 redistricting, in a highly unusual process, the General Assembly enacted a local bill restructuring the Board of Education, changing it from a 9 single-member district plan to one with 7 single-member districts and 2 super districts.

- b. In 2015, shortly after Democrats swept the Board of Commissioners elections in November 2014, in a highly unusual process, the General Assembly enacted a local bill restructuring the Board of County Commissioners, changing from a system in which 7 representatives are elected county-wide from residence districts, to the identical 7-2 system adopted in 2013 for the school board.
- c. The population deviations in the 7- single member and 2-super-district plans in S.L. 2013-110 and S.L. 2015-4 were caused by the legislature's desire to create a partisan advantage for Republican voters, to target and disadvantage incumbents on the Board of Education who were registered Democrats, and to give unequal, greater weight to the votes of suburban and rural Wake County voters compared to that of urban Wake County voters.
- d. Districts in both the numbered and super district plans were underpopulated and overpopulated so as to advantage rural and suburban voters over urban voters.
- g. Districts in both the numbered and super district plans were also underpopulated and overpopulated so as to advantage Republican voters, and the candidates they support, over Democratic voters and the candidates those voters support.
- h. District 4 is not geographically compact.
- i. District 4's lines disregard traditional redistricting criteria, including keeping precincts whole and respecting communities of interest.
- j. District 4 was intentionally drawn to be a majority-black district.
- k. The shape and composition of District 4 cannot be explained on grounds other than race.

3. Misjoinder

Plaintiffs' position is that given the Fourth Circuit's ruling in the Wright appeal, Wright v. North Carolina, 787 F.3d 256, 261 n. 2, 262 (4th Cir. May 27, 2015), there is no question as to misjoinder or non-joinder of the parties. Plaintiffs sued other parties in both the Wright and

RWCA case, including various state legislators, believing they were proper parties, but based on the Fourth Circuit's ruling, those additional parties have been dismissed from both cases.

4. Legal Issues

- e. Whether, by creating an election system that unjustifiably weights the vote of some voters in the county much more heavily than the vote of other voters in the county, S.L. 2013-110 (the Wake County Board of Education redistricting plan) and S.L. 2015-4 (the Wake County Board of County Commissioners redistricting plan) violates the one-person, one-vote requirement established by the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.
- f. Whether, by creating an election system that unjustifiably weights the vote of some voters in the county much more heavily than the vote of other voters in the county, S.L. 2013-110 (the Wake County Board of Education redistricting plan) and S.L. 2015-4 (the Wake County Board of County Commissioners redistricting plan) violates the one-person, one-vote requirement established by Article I, Section 19, of the North Carolina Constitution.
- g. Whether the deviations in S.L. 2013-110 and S.L. 2015-4 were motivated by arbitrary, discriminatory, bad faith, or unevenly applied justifications, and thus violate the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution.
- h. Whether the deviations in S.L. 2013-110 and S.L. 2015-4 were motivated by arbitrary, discriminatory, bad faith, or unevenly applied justifications, and thus violate Article I, Section 19, of the North Carolina Constitution.
- i. Whether the state legislature had a compelling governmental interest for using race as a predominant motive in the drawing of District 4 in S.L. 2015-4.
- j. Whether Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act compelled the creation of a majority-black district in Wake County.
- k. Whether the state legislature narrowly tailored the drawing of District 4 in S.L. 2015-4 to advance a compelling governmental interest.

B. Defendant's Contentions

Defendant is presenting a limited defense in this action. It was named as Defendant by reason of its obligation to implement the new electoral districts enacted by the North Carolina General Assembly for the election of the Wake County Board of Education and Wake County Board of County Commissioners. Neither the Attorney General, Members of the General Assembly, nor any other interested organization has sought to defend the constitutionality of these electoral districts.

Defendant does not take a position regarding what the electoral districts for the Board of Education or the Board of County Commissioners should be. That is a political question. But the question of the constitutionality of the districts could expose Defendant to indirect impacts. Plaintiffs could seek to recover attorneys' fees from Defendant if they are successful. Further, if the use of partisanship in drawing districts within a 10 percent maximum population deviation is unconstitutional, Defendant could face litigation after any redistricting decision by a political body that result in similar deviations among districts.

To mitigate those potential practical and economic impacts while remaining neutral on what the preferred districts should be, Defendant has authorized a limited defense of the constitutionality of the Enacted Districts that will be largely limited to eliciting fact testimony through cross-examination and arguing the sufficiency of Plaintiffs' evidence against the governing legal principles. Defendant does not intend to separately defend the political or legal interests of the General Assembly.

Against this backdrop, Defendant contends the following:

1. One person, one vote claims.

- (a) Plaintiffs' "one person, one vote" claims under the Federal and North Carolina Constitutions fail because Plaintiffs cannot carry their burden to prove that redistricting plans enacted by Session Laws 2013-110 and 2015-4 (“Enacted Districts”) are the product of bad faith, arbitrariness, or invidious discrimination. Partisan motivations, even if proved, are not sufficient to establish a constitutional violation with respect to electoral districts within a maximum population deviation of 10 percent. Any other result would require the Court to do what the Supreme Court has refused to do in traditional political gerrymandering cases—fashion and apply a discernable standard to resolve allegations of partisanship in redistricting plans. The fact that Plaintiffs can draw a “better plan” or a plan that follows traditional districting criteria in a manner that they prefer is similarly insufficient to establish a federal or state constitutional violation on this record.

(b) Because the Board of Education elections are nonpartisan, Plaintiffs’ evidence focusing on “policy” bias must also fail. There is no evidence that a specific policy preference related to the School Board is a proxy for political party. In any event, policy preferences are even more fleeting and difficult to evaluate and isolate as proxies for voting patterns than partisan bias.

(c) Plaintiffs’ claim that the Enacted Districts favor non-Raleigh voters at the expense of Raleigh voters is not sufficient to establish a constitutional violation. This case does not contain the same direct evidence of legislative intent as in Larios v. Cox. Nor do the Enacted Districts move large numbers of electoral seats from one area of the county to another. Rather, Districts A and B simply divide the county into two districts and each elects a single representative to the Board of County Commissioners and Board of Education, respectively.

2. Racial Gerrymandering Claim. Plaintiffs’ racial gerrymandering claim with respect to District 4 in the RWCA action fails because Plaintiffs cannot carry their burden to prove that race was the predominant factor motivating the legislature in the creation of District 4.

Plaintiffs have no direct evidence of legislative motivations establishing race as a predominant factor. Plaintiffs' circumstantial evidence, at best, proves that there were other non-racial potential factors informing the creation of District 4, including political motivations. Plaintiffs' racial gerrymandering claim also conflicts with the failure of certain Plaintiffs to allege a racial gerrymandering claim in the Wright action.

3. Joinder. The Attorney General is a necessary party whose joinder is required to this action pursuant to Rules 19(a) and 12(b)(7) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The Attorney General has a duty to defend the constitutionality of statutes in all actions in which the State, or its agencies and officers have an interest, and the failure to do so impede its interest in discharging that duty. The Attorney General has historically discharged this duty and even informed this Court during the Wright action that it intended to intervene in the event the State of North Carolina and the legislative defendants were dismissed as parties (which they were).

elections; effects of SB 325

Defendants do not object to the proffering of any of the witnesses on Plaintiffs' witness list.

B. Defendants

Name	Address	Proposed Testimony
Gary Sims	337 S Salisbury St. Raleigh, NC 27601	Executive Director of the Wake Co. Board of Elections. Will testify on issues regarding various statistical data maintained by the Defendant, including but not limited to voter registration statistics, district maps, election results, and other election-related data.
Brian Ratledge	337 S Salisbury St. Raleigh, NC 27601	Chairman of the Wake Co. Board of Elections. Will testify regarding the lack of knowledge of, or participation by, the Board of Elections in the consideration or enactment of SB 325 and SB 181
Rep. Paul Stam	300 N. Salisbury Street Raleigh, NC 27601	Would testify regarding the intent of the General Assembly in enacting SB 325 and SB 181

Plaintiffs do not object to the proffering of Mr. Sims and Mr. Rutledge, but do object to the potential proffering of Rep. Stam, who is on Defendant's "May Call," list, not Defendant's "Will Call" list. Defendant has indicated that it has no current arrangement with Rep. Stam about his willingness to waive legislative privilege/immunity.

Rep. Stam has asserted legislative privilege and immunity in resisting document discovery sought from Plaintiffs. His counsel has stated his belief that such privilege/immunity is both testimonial and evidentiary. Legislators' Motion to Quash, Case No. 5:15-cv-156, Dkt. Nos. 41 and 42 (Nov. 4, 2015). If Rep. Stam were to decide to waive that testimonial and evidentiary privilege at this late date, after discovery has closed, after resisting discovery sought by Plaintiffs on the grounds of legislative privilege, and specifically after asserting he had a testimonial privilege such that he could not be deposed, Plaintiffs would be enormously prejudiced. As such, Plaintiffs would object to the testimony of Rep. Stam if Defendants attempt to call him as a witness.

VI. TRIAL TIME ESTIMATES

The Court has set aside 3 days for trial, and the parties anticipate that trial will take that entire 3 days.
